

FEB 23 1967

FOIAb3b

CIA financial aid to student groups was "well worthwhile," Sen. Robert Kennedy said. In a speech at Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, N.Y., the New York Democrat said the idea was "not to indoctrinate anybody" but to assure U.S. student participation at international conferences.